Yes! Jesus Loves Me

Last week I had the honour of listening again and again to the beautiful words that never grow old to me:

> Jesus loves me this I know
>
> For the Bible tells me so.
>
> Little ones to Him belong,
>
> They are weak but He is strong.
>
> Yes, Jesus loves me!
>
> Yes, Jesus loves me!
>
> Yes, Jesus loves me!
>
> The Bible tells me so.

Students from the South Pacific Bible College (Tauranga, New Zealand) generously volunteered to add some new material to www.missionbibleclass.org

Even though SPBC is a small school the student body consists of people from many parts of the world. As students cheerfully sang the same song in English, Mandarin, Cantonese, Tagalon and Thai I was reminded again and again that the love of Jesus is for every person in the world. This means every language, every culture, every socio-economic group and every age.

Children are naturally curious about people in other parts of the world so I think they will enjoy listening to "Jesus Loves Me" in various languages. How about taking your laptop or tablet along with you when you next time you teach one of the following lessons?

- Jonah and the Big Fish- Everyone deserves a chance to hear about God
- The Great Commission and Ascension- Telling others about Jesus
- Cornelius Becomes a Christian- God wants all to become Christians
- Paul's 2nd Missionary Journey (Macedonian Vision)- Missionaries
- Paul's Trial- Telling others about Jesus

And perhaps you will enjoy listening too. Click here to listen to "Jesus Loves Me" in English, Mandarin, Cantonese, Tagalog and the Thai language.
