Not for Sale or Profit:

You may NOT copy, print or reproduce any portion of this website and use it or include it in other publications that will be sold or profited from.

Special Cases:

If you wish to copy content for larger projects or purposes other than a local church or individual mission situations like those specified above, then please apply for permission by contacting mary@missionbibleclass.org. In the email, please describe the specific situation and request.

Special Note About Songs on this Website:

These “how to” song videos are made by volunteers to help you learn songs for teaching the Bible to children. Sing along with the video until you feel confident enough to sing the song by yourself. Link to songs on this website.

The videos on this website are meant for training purposes. They are traditional lyrics and tunes. Mission Bible Class does not claim to be the original composer or copyright holder.

Bible Study Tools:

The website <https://www.biblegateway.com/> has been linked extensively. Although they do not require permission for this, I would like to recognise them for free use of their great tools.

Other Online Resources:

This website contains many links to other resources, websites and blogs that are not owned by Mission Bible Class. I appreciate the writers and have shared these links with you because I have found them useful in some way.

But please note that Mission Bible Class does not have any control over the content of these external resources, nor do I necessarily condone any additional content or changes found on these websites and blogs. Websites change authors or purposes from time to time, so please email me at mary@missionbibleclass.org if you notice a questionable or broken link.

Personal Statement

Mission Bible Class is a personal labour of love I have worked on for many years. I created it as a tool to help people around the world share God’s Word with children at no financial cost. Many people have urged me to charge money for these materials, but I really believe that teachers need free basic materials.

If you would also like to join me in providing free resources to teachers, please contact me at mary@missionbibleclass.org. I would love to speak with you.
