

Games and Learning Activities

Children love to play games and participate in activities and so do I. It is a fun way to learn. If I play games I try to choose those that have enough skill and chance involved that everyone can win some games sometimes. Team or partner games are fun and sometimes it is boys against girls. As a rule, I don't give out prizes for games. We play for the fun of it in my classes.

Bottle-cap Word Puzzles

Links to Other Games and Resources

Memory Verse Activities

Pass the Parcel Game

Review Activities

Song Cards

Spinner Review Game

Teaching that Makes Sense \(using our senses to teach\)

True or False Toss- Review Game

Who's Holding the Bag? Game

Additional Online Resources:

- Bible Trivia questions and quiz suggestions at <http://ministry-to-children.com/kids-bible-trivia/>