Printables: Balaam and His Donkey

Story Cards, Bookmarks, Timeline, Small Pictures

These printables can be used in various ways, including illustrations for stories, cards to collect and match, bookmarks to take home and small pictures for attendance charts or matching games.

These should be printed on the correct paper size to look their best. The two most common sizes (“Letter” and “A4”) are provided here for each Bible Lesson.

To Print on Letter Size Paper

This paper measures 8.5 inches wide and 11 inches tall (215.9 by 279.4 mm) and is most commonly used as home or office stationery in the United States, Canada, Chile, Mexico, the Dominican Republic, Costa Rica, Colombia, Venezuela, Chile, and the Philippines.

To Print on A4 Size Paper

This paper measures 210 millimetres wide x 297 millimetres tall (8.3 inches wide and 11.7 inches). It is the ISO standard and is commonly used by all countries except those listed above. Information from Wikipedia.

“God’s Story” Reflection Page

The printables, below, can be used for any Bible lesson. After teaching the lesson, provide each child with one of these pages and then allow the children time to write and draw what they have learned.
