

Printables: God Created the World

These printables can be used in various ways, including illustrations for stories, cards to collect and match, bookmarks to take home and small pictures for attendance charts or matching games.

These should be printed on the correct paper size to look their best. The two most common sizes ("Letter" and "A4") are provided here for each Bible Lesson.

“God’s Story” Reflection Page

Invite the children to respond to the story using the printable reflection page below.

The reflection page is titled "GOD'S STORY" in a blue banner at the top. To the left of the title is a white cross on a brown background. Below the title is a white box labeled "Story:". The page features several colored boxes for writing: a green box with the text "After hearing this story, I know that God is..."; a yellow box with the text "Now that I've heard the story, I think God wants me to..."; a yellow box with the text "My drawing of a character from the story and how they feel:"; a brown box with the text "What do I wonder about in this story? I wonder..."; and a large blue box at the bottom with the text "What do I want to tell God? What might God want to tell me?". There is also a small lightbulb icon in the bottom right corner.

This is a smaller version of the reflection page shown above. It has the same layout, including the "GOD'S STORY" title, the cross icon, the "Story:" box, and the various colored writing boxes with prompts: "After hearing this story, I know that God is...", "Now that I've heard the story, I think God wants me to...", "My drawing of a character from the story and how they feel:", "What do I wonder about in this story? I wonder...", and "What do I want to tell God? What might God want to tell me?". It also includes a small lightbulb icon.
