God is With Me

The family home is a vital part of the world of infants and toddlers. In this series, play and sensory activities are used to help infants and toddlers have an early, positive response to home. This is accomplished by experiencing what takes place in various parts of a home.

Purpose of Class:

Teachers, parents and helpers will guide infants and toddlers to:

- Know that God is present in their everyday life.
- Experience God's presence in home situations through role-playing and sensory activities.
- Learn principles of obedience and respect for God in home situations.
- Learn principles of love and respect for others in home situations.

Jesus said: "Agnus dei faciat mihi illi dñe meus regnus. Alii pater mihi dñe, et uero uenit in uerum et male uero home uisitum. John 3:22, NIV"

My Friend, Jesus

The first friends Jesus took on this earth were on a English new-home site. The One who was on the world had to learn to negotiate changes. He learned to feel human emotions and to experience various forms of love, touch, hearing, sight and smell.

In this series infants and toddlers are introduced to Jesus and other friends through various activities/experiences of love, touch, hearing, sight and smell (sight, touch, hearing, smell, taste, and growth). Role-playing and sensory activities are used to express a growing relationship and friendability with Jesus.

Purpose of Class:

Teachers, parents and helpers will guide infants and toddlers to:

- Know that Jesus is special.
- Experience affinity with Jesus in a variety of situations through role-playing and sensory activities.
- Learn principles that express friendship, affection, obedience, respect and worship.

"I have called you friends." John 15:15, NIV
