Puppet Skit by Jenny Ansell

Narrator-One day-God spoke to Abram....

God: Abram, I want you to leave your country and all your friends and go to a land that I will show you. Take your wife –Sarai and your nephew Lot and all your servants and sheep.

Abram: Well-Lord I am 75 years old but I guess I'm not too old to follow you..

Narrator: So Abram packed all his possessions, herded his sheep, took his family and off he went. It was a long journey. They were a bit hot and dusty but they finally came to a place called Shechem and he stopped at a beautiful tree called Moreh... The the Lord spoke to Abram

God: Abram, I'm going to make a promise to you...

Abram: What Lord?

God: I'm going to make a promise to you. You see this land around here. I'm going to give you all this land. And Abram-can you count the stars in the sky?

Abram: No Lord there are too many..

God: Well that's how many children and grandchildren and great grandchildren I'm going to give you. You won't be able to count them. And Abram..

Abram: Yes Lord..

God: I've decided that through you-I'm going to bless all the rest of the people on the earth!
