

Instructions: Print a picture for each student. As you teach various stories about Paul the student writes facts about him in the margins. Alternatively, enlarge the picture and complete it as a class project.

