

Job 37 (International Children's Bible)

<sup>1</sup> "At the sound of his thunder, my heart pounds. It is as if my heart will jump out of my chest.

<sup>3</sup> He turns his lightning loose under the whole sky. And he sends it to the farthest parts of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> After that you can hear the roar when he thunders with a great sound. He does not hold back the flashing when his voice is heard.

<sup>5</sup> God's voice thunders in wonderful ways. He does great things we cannot understand.

<sup>6</sup> God says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth.' And he says to the rain shower, 'Be a heavy rain.'

<sup>7</sup> With it, God stops everyone from working. That way, everyone knows it is the work of God.

<sup>9</sup> The storm comes from where it was stored. The cold comes from the strong winds.

<sup>11</sup> God fills the clouds up with water. And he scatters his lightning through them.

<sup>12</sup> At God's command they swirl around over the whole earth. They do whatever he commands.

<sup>13</sup> God uses the clouds to punish people or to water his earth and show his love.

<sup>14</sup> "Job, listen to this. Stop and notice God's miracles.

<sup>15</sup> Do you know how God controls the clouds and makes his lightning flash?

<sup>16</sup> Do you know how the clouds hang in the sky? They are the miracles of God, who knows everything.

<sup>17</sup> You suffer in your clothes when the land is made quiet by the hot, south wind.

<sup>18</sup> You cannot stretch out the sky like God and make it look as hard as polished bronze.

<sup>19</sup> Tell us what we should say to God. We cannot get our arguments ready because we do not have enough understanding.

<sup>20</sup> Should God be told that I want to speak? A man might try to speak to God, but he would surely be swallowed up.

<sup>21</sup> No one can look at the sun when it is bright in the sky after the wind has blown all the clouds away.

<sup>23</sup> God All-Powerful is too high for us to reach. He has great strength. He is always right and never punishes unfairly.

<sup>24</sup> That is why people honor God. He does not respect those who say they are wise.
